

“The scientific Socialist fighting for the new civilization is continuously at grips with the problems of words and their meaning. His weapons of struggle are ideas, political programs, transmitted to the masses by the oral or written word. Analysis of those words which are significant for the remaking of society is not a problem of philosophy; the essence of the problem is political, i.e. class.”

L. Harry Gould

MARXIST GLOSSARY

Marxist Glossary

L. Harry Gould